the uk border agency and their predecessors have consistently generated a large number of complaints to the ombudsman not just in terms of the number of complaints received but also the number of complaints accepted for investigation and the high proportion which are upheld the complaints are mostly from people in this country who are facing long delays awaiting a decision on their application to the agency applicants ought to be told what to expect and be safe and properly supported while awaiting a decision and that decision ought to be fast and fair delays by the agency in deciding such applications mean that people who should be given permission to stay are often left unable to support themselves and uncertain as to their future and those who should be removed remain here with their chances of eventually being allowed to stay increasing because of the agency's delay the agency's biggest problem is the huge backlog of old asylum applications which has built up over a number of years leaving hundreds of thousands of applicants waiting for years for a final decision this report contains summaries of 11 cases which are illustrative of the complaints referred to the parliamentary ombudsman about the uk border agency they involve applications for asylum as well as the agency s core immigration and nationality work and applications for residence cards which confirm rights under european law this study offers an analysis of the historical antecedents and a criticism of the contemporary institution of the ombudsman in nigeria this work should appeal to scholars interested in african studies legal studies and political science of the british colonial administration after gaining independence from british colonial rule the government did not deviate from the established practice of the colonial administration in relation to the protection of the rights of the citizens the only available channel for citizens to challenge arbitrary and capricious action of administrative officials is the ordinary courts of law justice in administrative areas under this arrangement often seems slow and wanting therefore the military government instituted a commission of enquiry to analyze and find ways to improve the situation which recommended the establishment of the institution of the ombudsman enhance the impact of the fcc on grievance resolution the fcc must become autonomous from the civil service structure and provisions must be made to increase the legal powers and jurisdictional competence of the fcc a vigorous publicity campaign must be mounted to keep the public abreast of the functions of the fcc a team of competent aggressive and enterprising personnel must be attracted to the fcc to enhance efficiency and professionalism contributed papers presented at a colloquium jointly organized by the british council division and indian institute of public administration the yearbook is the only publication devoted to ombudsman issues the international ombudsman yearbook contains articles written from legal or public administration perspectives which address issues of interest to the contemporary ombudsman and all persons with an interest in the institution
