where do we find the core of life's meaning right on the job at whatever work we do with head or hand from kitchen to executive suite from your house to the white house work is the great equalizer everyone has to come to it in order to find meaning in living no short cuts no detours no bargain rates

throughout my priestly service i have carried in my heart a deep desire to help believers return to the biblical understanding of the one true and living god not as conceived by human speculation but as revealed by god himself in the holy scriptures fulfilled in the lord jesus christ and made known by the holy spirit the church confesses one god this is the faith of the prophets the apostles and the fathers who proclaimed the same god of israel yahweh the self existent i am as the god and father of our lord jesus christ from age to age this unchanging confession has been the foundation of true worship that the creator of heaven and earth is one in essence revealed as father through his word and by his spirit throughout history the mystery of the divine being has been expressed by the theological terms trinity and one essence in three hypostases the early fathers of the church employed these terms not to invent new ideas but to defend the apostolic faith against false teaching yet over time these expressions have sometimes been misunderstood leading some to imagine three gods tritheism and others to think of the one god as merely appearing in three forms modalism both errors obscure the living revelation of the one god who is father word and spirit this book titled the oneness of god a biblical perspective seeks to present the same ancient and apostolic faith in the clear and living language of scripture rather than in the speculative terminology of philosophy it does not attempt to define god's inner essence which remains beyond all human comprehension but to contemplate his self revelation the one living god who creates redeems and sanctifies who acts speaks and gives life the god whom israel worshiped as yahweh has revealed himself in the fullness of time as the father through his eternal word λόγος and by his holy spirit this revelation is not a departure from monotheism it is its divine fulfillment the father's self manifestation through his word and by his spirit does not divide his oneness but unveils it in its fullness the same god who said let there be light is the same who revealed himself in the face of jesus christ and who now abides in us by his spirit the scripture proclaims for god who said light shall shine out of darkness is the one who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of god in the face of jesus christ 2 corinthians 4:6 the purpose of this work is not to introduce novelty but to restore clarity to draw the mind and heart of the believer back to the living word of god where divine truth is revealed not in abstract formulas but in the history of salvation the mystery of the one god is not a contradiction to reason but the revelation of divine love that we may share in his life holiness and communion this study is therefore not an exercise in speculation but a confession of faith that the one god has revealed himself as the father through his word and by his spirit moises declared the secret things belong to yahweh our god but those things which are revealed belong to us and to our children forever that we may do all the words of this law deuteronomy 29:29 so what remains hidden in the depths of god's eternal being is his own mystery but what he has revealed is given to us for faith obedience and worship this book continues the theological journey begun in my earlier works yahweh the hebrew name of god the heavenly father a biblical perspective the logos of god a biblical perspective and the holy spirit a biblical perspective now brought together into a unified contemplation of the one divine mystery

we journey through life with varied preoccupations all aimed at living a good life worthy as this may seem we owe it to ourselves to have eternity in perspective with our eyes fixed on Jesus the author and perfecter of our faith in this light our core drive in life should be to grow into the image of our risen Christ as we strive for perfection in him in this book I am privileged to share with you deep insights that will spur you on to mature spiritually and live as Christ has ordained you to our journey here on earth is short and we must be committed to fulfilling God's original plan for our lives resolve today to be Christ minded and seek him above all else a healthy Christian needs to cultivate both spiritual and physical well being yet often we can be so spiritual that we neglect our physical natural selves on the other hand we can also be so caught up in our physical health that we may neglect working out our spiritual selves as well so how do we find a balance and what if God even provided us with a guide to make ourselves our very best both inside and outside in understanding spiritual and physical health a biblical perspective author Troy A. Roberson shares his passion for fitness and health and his years of studying the word of God to help believers learn how to be healthy both in body and in spirit Roberson explains how the Bible is God's guidebook for living and in it God shows his children how their bodies and spirits are connected this connection means that the richer we are in spirit the more healing health and well being we will have in our natural lives as well the apostle John tells us beloved I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health even as thy soul prospereth 3 John 2 by putting into practice the advice and suggestions for how to live a good life of health and wellness through nutrition and a godly lifestyle from a biblical perspective you too can enjoy the blessings of Christ's restoration
